

Waiver & Consent

By agreeing with the terms & conditions set out by Infinity Golf LTD, you agree that you do not suffer from any illnesses, injuries, allergies or medical conditions that inhibit your ability to use our facilities.

If you do suffer from any illnesses, injuries, allergies or medical conditions, or if you are currently on medication that can inhibit your ability to use all our facilities, you agree to let us know by emailing info@infinitygolf.co.uk, along with your booking number so we can make any necessary arrangements prior to your arrival for your tee time.

You consent to take part in activities at Infinity Golf LTD. In providing your consent you declare that you understand that Infinity Golf LTD takes all appropriate precautions to prevent accidents, however golfing activities are not totally risk free – for example being hit by a golf ball or club accidentally.

You the customer of Infinity Golf LTD will take all steps to avoid accidents or damage to our property – for example any practice swings must take place within the simulator area and any golfing equipment hired, must be handed back in the same condition that it was prior to use. Anything that Infinity Golf LTD views as reckless behaviour and that leads to damage by the customer will be charged to that customer.

You confirm that you have understood these terms, and that you are physically fit and healthy enough to take part in Infinity Golf LTD activities.

You agree that in the event of any illness or accident, that any treatment can be administered to you.

You also agree to follow any safety rules set out by Infinity Golf LTD for your own safety.

Free cancellations are available up to 24 hours of your booking. You agree that there is no refund within the 24 hours of your tee time. However, if you wish to change your booking within the 24-hour time frame you can contact us.

Adults are responsible for any under 18s in your party and you give them consent to take part in any activities at Infinity Golf LTD.

Challenge 25 policy will be in place meaning we have the right to request identification from any customer who appears to be under 25. This policy aims to ensure that only those over 18, the legal age for purchasing alcohol are actually served.

Please Note:

The golf course simulations playable are not endorsed by or affiliated with any real-world golf courses or their respective owners or operators.